

Can You Help Us To Discover

Who Is Oxford's Covered Market?

Volunteers Wanted

Thanks to a grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund, the Oxford Muse is working with the Oxfordshire Town Chambers Network and the Oxford Civic Society to tell the fascinating stories of the people behind Oxford's Covered Market. We are now recruiting volunteers who would like the opportunity to learn the Oxford Muse's Art of Portrait-Making, and so to help us tell those stories. We would like to recruit our volunteers ASAP

What's Involved?

Training in how to make an Oxford Muse Portrait (with ongoing support throughout)

Making a portrait, through conversation, with a Covered Market Trader

The portraits will be displayed in high profile final exhibition at a major City venue, and will be accessible via a new Covered Market website, (as well as being displayed at www.oxfordmuse.com).

In addition, a celebratory event is planned to thank all participants at the end of the project. Dr Theodore Zeldin, Founder and President of the Oxford Muse, will give a talk at this event.
